

A PERSONAL NOTE

As an intuitive Website and Graphic Designer I feel deeply connected both spiritually and energetically to my clients. I strive to achieve balance in all areas of my life, which then allows me to offer a high standard of service which is both individually creative and professional. Given my drive for excellence I have recognised my work needs to be consistently and sensibly structured, as I suffer with fibromyalgia, arthritis, chronic fatigue and pre-and-post surgery shoulder injuries.

Being mindful of my energy allows me to wholeheartedly immerse myself in creativity and attention to detail when working, whilst also giving myself permission to take scheduled time out to fill my own cup when my body signals me to do so. My aim is to be completely transparent and establish clear guidelines from the beginning.

I trust the Universe to guide like minded souls to my services; those who feel both a personal connection and also believe I offer a great service on a professional level.

I truly believe my health challenges have created a better me. Through my experiences I have become a wiser, more committed, understanding and compassionate human being. This extends to my relationship with clients. As a natural empath I invest feeling and energy into my work. Through my own personal experiences I have developed an understanding of the many challenges others face, which can influence the direction a project may evolve. I believe this enhances my value as a web designer as I truly connect on so many levels.

Effective communication between both parties is fundamental to a mutually satisfying and abundant relationship as unmet expectations can cause conflict and frustration. The purpose of sharing my personal details is about being authentic and establishing integrity within my work and personal life. It allows me to honour myself, whilst also honouring you. By consciously choosing to work with me you are investing in someone who is walking their path, as you are walking your own. May we inspire one another and create something magical which reflects what you deeply wish to share with the world.

The hours I choose to dedicate to work allow me to complete projects within a reasonable time frame, and I am always finding new ways to work smarter and more efficiently. I recognise emergency situations such as a website or email being “down” may arise occasionally, and will receive my utmost attention.

Lastly, many of you are healers and sometimes kindly offer me your time and valuable knowledge in this way. Past experience has shown it's best if I keep my healing and treatments separate from my clientele, as it can upset the balance of our relationships.
